

Rule 981.

504. On admission into a jail all prisoners shall be thoroughly searched. From prisoners sentenced to rigorous imprisonment, every article, whether clothing, money, jewellery, documents or anything else, shall be taken (but if prisoners are received late or after lock-up, their clothing shall be left with them until next morning). From simple imprisonment prisoners, money, personal ornaments, papers and letters and any property other than clothes shall be taken. From under-trial prisoners the same articles shall be taken as from simple imprisonment prisoners, except bedding and shoes which they may retain. From civil prisoners only dangerous weapons, articles likely to facilitate escape, spirits, drugs and immoral books shall be taken. The caste threads of Brahmins or other thread-wearing castes shall in no case be removed. Civil prisoners shall not be searched in the presence of any other prisoners, and European prisoners shall be searched where possible only by and in the presence of Europeans. The search of female prisoners shall be made by the matron or female warder, and only in the presence of females. All property taken from prisoners shall be dealt with as ordered in Chapter X. The search must be thoroughly and carefully done, as prisoners frequently conceal articles in their hair and beards and in other parts of their persons.

505. All prisoners shall be seen immediately after admission by the Medical Subordinate, who shall send any who are sick to the hospital for treatment. If there is an observation or segregation ward for new admissions, the new arrivals shall be located there until the Medical Officer directs that they shall be placed with other prisoners. If any epidemic is prevalent and accommodation for new admissions is provided outside the jail, prisoners shall not be admitted within the jail till orders have been given by the Medical Officer, or, in his absence, by the Sub-Assistant Surgeon, for their admission. They shall, at once be provided with necessary bedding, and protection from cold. Prisoners on first admission to jail shall at the discretion of the Medical Officer be kept in quarantine for such period as may in his opinion be necessary.

Rules 736, 1246.

506. Immediately after admission (or, in the case of prisoners received late or after lock-up, early next morning) all prisoners shall be made to wash themselves thoroughly, also their clothing; and convicted prisoners shall each be furnished with the full jail equipment prescribed in Chapter XXXVIII. Such of the private clothing received with convicted prisoners as can be boiled without damage shall be boiled before it is stored.
